

What do you think?

In The Garden Gathering, Sunny learns the importance of liking herself just the way she is.

Read the situation below, choose the best answer, and tell us what YOU think

Susie just got glasses. When she went to school the next day, some of her classmates made fun of her, and called her names. Now, when Susie went to lunch, she would sit alone, because she didn't think anyone liked her.

How did the classmates react to Susie's new glasses?

- a. With kindness
- b. They were thoughtless and insensitive
- c. Responsibly

How did the classmate's behavior affect Susie?

- a. Made her very happy
- b. Helped her to work on her science project
- c. She began to feel awkward and insecure

What lesson or lessons do you think the classmates need to learn?

- a. To accept others and their differences, and be considerate of people's feelings
- b. What color yellow and red mixed together make
- c. How to tie their shoes

How do you think Lilly could help the classmates learn more productive behavior?

- a. Show them a map of the world
- b. Bring someone into their lives to show them the wonderful feeling you can experience from accepting others for who they are, differences and all
- c. Have them do 50 jumping jacks

---

Give us your thoughts on the following:

I think people are not always accepting of others because...

---

---

Could Susie have responded differently when she went to lunch? How?

---

---

---