

Art With Heart

Lesson #2

Age:
1st Grade

Objective:

- Students will use their personal perspective to respond critically to a fictional work of literature.
- Students will write to communicate ideas effectively.

Materials:

Art With Heart by Julie Woik

Pencils

Print out form that correlates with this lesson.

Optional - Send home letter to parents regarding this lesson.

See attached Letter for Parents

Activity:

Gather the children in a circle and read Art With Heart, showing everyone the illustrations. After the reading, hand out the form in which the students will get a chance to write down and share their opinions regarding the sixth book in the Lilly the Lash series. After the students hand in the reviews, read them aloud. Discuss how one review compares to another.

Assessment:

Students will form their own ideas and opinions about a piece of literature. This exercise will also give them a chance to share their thoughts with other classmates.
