Optional - Send home letter to parents regarding this lesson.

See attached Letter for Parents

Activity:

Gather the children in a circle and read Art With Heart, showing everyone the illustrations. After the reading, hand out the form for this activity. Discuss the importance of punctuation, and explain how a sentence or statement can take on a different meaning with the use of certain punctuation.

Assessment:

Students will write and communicate ideas and information effectively, using correct punctuation. They'll be able to clarify an understanding of the content they created and the process they used to complete their writings.
