

YOU are the Art Critic!

An Art Critic critiques, analyzes, finds meaning, and reviews art.

People are interested in what a critic has to say, even though their comments are only an opinion.

Now it's YOUR turn to tell the world what you think!

My name is: _____

The name of the work of art I'm critiquing is: _____

The name of the artist is: _____

This type of artwork is called: _____

When an artist creates, they use one or all of the art elements: line, shape, space, value, form, texture, and color. Circle the elements you think the artist used the best:

Line

Shape

Value

Form

Texture

Color

Why? _____

Artists want to generate a mood with their art. They want people to FEEL something. Since this is a book, and there are many pages, what types of moods or emotions did you feel? Examples: Sad, Happy, Excited, Mad, Confused, Worried, Fear, Jealousy, Joy, or Surprised
