

Contractions Work TOGETHER

A contraction is a shortened form of two words.

Read the sentence from the Lilly the Lash book, Jungle Jive.
Circle the contraction. Write the two words that make up the contraction.

Answers for 2nd Grade - Lesson #5

1. We'll strengthen the muscles that help us to play. We will
2. "You'll want to take notice," Ms. Lilly would say. You will
3. "I'm a gift," she explained, "made especially for you." I am
4. "It's obvious, why anyone, would choose here to live." It is
5. They're sure to provide me an effortless flight. They are
6. A sticky predicament, she'd not soon forget! she would
7. I've been grown from the thoughts that you hold deep inside. I have
8. We'd stroll on for hours, and not say a word. We would
9. We're summoned, to the outskirts, of Tree Bark Falls. We are
10. Had been browned by the sun which they hadn't foreseen. had not
11. If we advertise to others, they'll all follow suit. they will
12. Because of your choices, you've reaped what you've sown. you have