

Contractions Work TOGETHER

A contraction is a shortened form of two words.

Read the sentence from the Lilly the Lash book, Jungle Jive.
Circle the contraction. Write the two words that make up the contraction.

1. We'll strengthen the muscles that help us to play. _____
2. "You'll want to take notice," Ms. Lilly would say. _____
3. "I'm a gift," she explained, "made especially for you." _____
4. "It's obvious, why anyone, would choose here to live." _____
5. They're sure to provide me an effortless flight. _____
6. A sticky predicament, she'd not soon forget! _____
7. I've been grown from the thoughts that you hold deep inside. _____
8. We'd stroll on for hours, and not say a word. _____
9. We're summoned, to the outskirts, of Tree Bark Falls. _____
10. Had been browned by the sun which they hadn't foreseen. _____
11. If we advertise to others, they'll all follow suit. _____
12. Because of your choices, you've reaped what you've sown. _____