

WHAT'S THE POINT?

*The author, Julie Woik, wrote this book to entertain,
but more importantly, learn a lesson.
Show the author that you understand what point she is making.*

What is the one main key word this book is about? _____

What is the meaning of this word, in the way the author means it?

When the town decided to start cutting and selling the trees in their area, what did they focused on, instead of this important key word?

What specific things happened to their area when they didn't pay attention to keeping this important key word?

1. Hint: (The grasses) _____

2. Hint: (Molly's house) _____

3. Hint: (The storm) _____

How are they going to restore this important key word to the town?
