

Follow First...Learn to LEAD

Following directions is something we ALL have to do...even adults!

When we follow directions well, we learn how to give directions, and we become good leaders.

1. In the first picture, what direction is being given? _____
 2. Why do you think anyone would listen to Teeder the Toad? _____
 3. If everyone decided to ignore Teeder's directions, do you think the group would still gather?
Yes No Why? _____
-

1. In the second picture, what type of directions do you think Daxton would be giving others?

2. What might happen if the others didn't listen to Daxton? _____

3. If someone didn't understand what Daxton was saying, would it be okay to ask about it?
Yes No What might they say? _____