

The Life and Times of Lilly the Lash®

Art With Heart

A bit tuckered out, having traveled so far,
Ms. Lilly hitched a ride on the bumper of a car.
She relaxed as the stars sparkled bright in the sky.
Then noticed a shooting one, learning to fly.

With the vehicle now slowing, she could see a small light.
It was coming from the alley, to the side on her right.
“I’m not sure,” Lilly pondered, “what’s happening inside.
As according to the sign, they close daily at five.”

Lilly rushed over and peered through the door,
The DESIGN YOUR ART CONTEST was the buzz of the store.
Pibble Dee Pencil was trying to debate,
The value of another, and their gift to create.

(Watch for Book #6 in this Series)

Follow Lilly on her next adventure to Gallery Gables

Where a pencil learns the important
Life Lesson of CONFIDENCE