

The Kacklin' Kitchen

Lesson #5

Age:
1st Grade

Objective:

- Students will use the reading process to construct meaning from text and illustrations.
- Students will use their listening strategies for a variety of informational purposes.

Materials:

The Kacklin' Kitchen by Julie Woik

Markers, Colored Pencils, or Pencils

Print out form that correlates with this lesson.

Optional - Send home letter to parents regarding this lesson.

See attached Letter for Parents

Activity:

Gather the children in a circle and read The Kacklin' Kitchen, showing everyone the illustrations. After the reading, hand out the form in which students can retell and recall the story and gain an understanding of the important lesson of RESPECT!

Assessment:

Students will recall the story and use their personal perspectives to respond to a work of literature. They will be able to relate to the characters and events in the story.