

The Kacklin' Kitchen

Lesson #4

Age:
2nd Grade

Objective:

- Students will use the writing process effectively to include a central idea or related ideas.
- Students will write to communicate their personal perspectives and events in their lives.

Materials:

The Kacklin' Kitchen by Julie Woik

Pencils

Print out form that correlates with this lesson.

Optional - Send home letter to parents regarding this lesson.

See attached Letter for Parents

Activity:

Gather the children in a circle and read 'The Kacklin' Kitchen', showing everyone the incredible illustrations. After the reading, print the form in which students will use their great storytelling abilities to create and write their own experience from the prompt provided.

Assessment:

Students will write to create a story including a central idea. They will utilize their knowledge and experiences to express their ideas clearly. Students will understand that word choices can shape their ideas, feelings, and actions.