I've Got It!

So here's where I'll stop and explain in a flash,
How my life was empowered by Lilly the Lash.
This spirited eyelash had taken the role,
Of a teacher in waiting, to mentor my soul.

Lilly was special, she opened my mind,
To the deep understanding and love of mankind.
The secrets she shared helped to show me the way,
How to look towards the future, but care for today.

The words Lilly spoke were in riddle and rhyme,
Bringing lessons to light, which were there the whole time.
"The world," Lilly pointed, "is here at your feet,

In the sights and the sounds and the people you meet."

Then along came the day when I knew in my heart,
That myself and Ms. Lilly would soon come to part.
We both were convinced by the work she had done,
That her message of goodness could serve more than one.

As she gazed at the moon, a small tear caught her eye,
In a wee tiny voice you could hear Lilly sigh.
Although I was sleeping, I felt a slight tug,
She had left me a gift, Lilly's best good-bye hug.
