

#7 - THE SITUATION

The teacher asks another student a question, but you're sure that you know the answer.

#7 YOU...

shout out the answer very loudly, not caring what anyone else thinks.

#7 YOU...

listen to the student's answer, but you're ready to raise your hand if their answer is incorrect.

#8 - THE SITUATION

You're given a worksheet and directed to begin. If you have trouble and need assistance, you can ask for help at any time.

#8 YOU...

don't take time to look over the worksheet, you just begin calling out "I don't know how to do this!"

#8 YOU...

read the instructions and begin the activity. If at some point you need help, you ask for assistance.