Group Size:

5 to 10

Can modify for larger groups

Materials:

The Garden Gathering book by Julie Woik

6" x 6" Scrapbook for each scout

Scout to bring: At least one picture of themselves

Scrapbooking paper and supplies (ribbon, buttons, stickers, rub-ons)

Scissors and glue

Fine point markers

Ziplock Bag with scrapbooking supplies - See scout instruction sheet

Discover:

Read The Garden Gathering together as a group. Afterwards, discuss how each of us can affect someone else's self-esteem. Discover how using positive words and actions can help raise someone's attitude about themselves.

Connect:

- Each Girl Scout will decorate the cover/back of their scrapbook.
- They will then create the first page of the book, being sure to use their own picture and date it.
- This is a good time to share scrapbooking ideas. If someone can bring a scrapbooking magazine, that would be great!

Take Action:

After decorating the scrapbooks, have the girls sit in a circle. Each girl will pass her book to the girl next to her. For the next week, each Girl Scout will use her supplies to decorate the next two pages in the book (see scout instructions). Each week return the scrapbook to the rightful owner and have everyone exchange again. Do this weekly until everyone has inspired a positive memory in everyone else's Traveling Scrapbook!
