Discover:

Read The Garden Gathering together. Afterwards, name some words that are positive. Discover how those positive words (and actions) can make a difference in our attitudes towards ourselves and others.

Connect:

- Each Girl Scout will use the template to cut out the color of hanger she wants (the troop leader may need to do this for them).
- The girls will decorate their hangers as they please, but must use at least one positive word or phrase.
- They may want to add a Lilly the Lash image to their hanger.

Take Action:

Have the girls gather in a circle after everyone has completed their hanger. Each girl will take turns showing her hanger and tell the group why she chose the positive word or phrase that she did.

Example: I chose the word “pride” because I’ve been trying my hardest to do well in school and I’m proud of myself.
