

Sunny smiles a lot and is very happy. Sometimes though, she has trouble with her science homework because she's a bit too chatty.

Ms. Jones, the teacher, has suggested to Sunny that she try talking less to other students while she's in class. That might help her do better with her studies.

How do you think Sunny will react to Ms. Jones?

Arnie complains a lot. He often wears a frown on his face. He doesn't have very many friends.

Principal Jackson watched Arnie on the playground one morning. He pulled him aside later in the day and suggested that Arnie smile more often and try to find something positive to say, as this would help him build friendships with others.

Do you think Arnie will be mad at Principal Jackson?

Lisa Ladybug is very pleasant to be around. She has lots of friends, and everyone likes her. One thing though, she's always quite disorganized.

Her friends loved her very much, but they felt bad for Lisa. So they suggested that Lisa wake up earlier each day, giving herself more time to get things done, which would help her be organized.

Do you think that Lisa Ladybug will care what her friends say?
