Discover:

Read The Toy Store together as a group. Discuss how sharing can build relationships and bring people together. Discover the feeling sharing gives each of us and how it affects the world as a whole.

Connect:

- Each girl will get a binder to decorate with stickers and so forth.
- They can call it Food With Flare, You Can Share or Recipes with Love or whatever they choose to title it.
- When they're finished, everyone can add their protectors to the binder and load them with each of the recipes from their troop members.

Take Action:

Each Girl Scout will now have new recipes to try from a troop member's private collection. Every time they use one of these recipes, they should think about how "sharing" brought it into their lives. Sharing is great!!
