

The Little Building

Lesson #1

Age:
5th Grade

Objective:

- Students will use their writing skills to voice their opinion about donating and giving to charity or a cause.
- Students will apply and extend these ideas to their own real-life situations.

Materials:

The Little Building by Julie Woik

Pencils

Print out form that correlates with this lesson.

Optional - Send home letter to parents regarding this lesson.

See attached Letter for Parents

Activity:

Gather the children in a circle and read The Little Building, showing everyone the illustrations. After the reading, discuss the fact that each of the Lilly the Lash books gives to a different cause. Talk about the effects of donating to a cause. Hand out the form in which students will provide their personal thoughts regarding donating money if they could.

Assessment:

Students will understand the benefits that can come with helping a cause through donations. They'll explore the type of personal experience they'd like to have, while helping their community and the world we live in.
