

The Toy Store

Lesson #5

Age:
3rd Grade

Objective:

- Students will prepare for writing by identifying purpose and focusing on a central idea and supporting ideas.
- Students will write to communicate ideas effectively, using correct punctuation, capitalization, and spelling.
- Students will recognize features of character and plot development.

Materials:

The Toy Store by Julie Woik

Pencils or Pens

Optional - Send home letter to parents regarding this lesson.

See attached Letter for Parents

Activity:

Gather the children in a circle and read The Toy Store. After the reading, hand out the form that correlates to this lesson. Have the students think about the answers to the questions and then create their own new adventure for Lilly the Lash to take.

Assessment:

Students recognize features of character and plot development and focus on a central idea, while using punctuation, capitalization, and spelling to write a short story.
