

NEWS FLASH!

Changing Times

You're Hired!

You met with the executives and you were terrific. They hired you right on the spot! Now, the famous world renown newspaper, Changing Times, wants you to write an article for the upcoming anniversary series.

The article will be a human interest story regarding SHARING. Remember, people share thoughts, feelings, and actions (not just potato chips at lunch). In fact, it might not even be about people. Perhaps you know of a dog that kindly shared its house with a cat. If you can make the story attention-grabbing, you've got a winner!

No matter what you write about, make sure it includes all of the elements you need. Start by making a list of the Who, What, When, Where, and Why's of the story. Don't forget your senses. What do you see, smell, or hear in this story? You need a beginning, an end, and details in between that will keep the reader's interest. Go on...you can do it. You're a number one Reporter!!

HEADLINE: _____

EXCITING LEADING SENTENCE: _____

ARTICLE: _____

CLOSING SENTENCE: _____
