

The Life and Times of Lilly the Lash®

Ocean Commotion

Dear Parents,

Today your child was involved in a lesson about honesty. We read the book Ocean Commotion by Julie Woik, which shows us how to use honesty to set things straight with others, and within yourself.

I encourage you to ask your child what he or she has learned from the reading of this book, and to discuss ideas that could help everyone in the family to learn about honesty and its many rewards.

You may want to practice by pointing out when someone in the family or someone you know has exercised the act of being honest. Always remember to give praise whenever it is deserved.

Thank you for helping us to help your children grow and become healthy adults with strong values and morals.

Sincerely,

This is the third in a series of books teaching values and morals, and building strong self-esteem in children from 0 - 10.
